COPY OF FORM 990

(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- > Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- > Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an "unreasonable burden" on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester's address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return Form 990 $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission: available in Haiti. We will also assist in placing abandoned children with adoptive families. Our purpose is to help the children of Haiti in any way we can and to spread the word of God to each person we serve. GLA conducts weekly church services and Bible Studies for all staff members, and has recently sponsored the development of a new church for the Haitian community.
Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:
2) Completed the placement of 18 children in adoptive homes in 2012.
3) GLA Haiti provided care by trained and volunteer staff to approximately 144 children. The children were given high protein, high calorie diets to reverse the effects of malnutrition.
4) Provided onsite education to children. GLA HAITI also helped with the education of local area children whose parents cannot afford to send their children to school. There is no public education in Haiti, and the cost for 1 year of tuition in 2012 was $360 USD per child.
Since this represents the average annual income for many Haitian families, many children would not be able to attend school without this program. With the help of sponsors from the USA, Canada, and Europe, 400 children were able to attend school in 2012.

independent CPA firm, reviewed by the Finance Department, and then copies of the Form 990 were e-mailed out to the board members for their review before the Form 990 was filed with the IRS.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: Member of the board and corporate officers are required to disclose any potential conflicts of interest on an annual basis. Should any conflict of interest present itself, the interested party would excuse themselves from the decision making process.
The policy is monitored regularly and consistently by the board as a whole.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: When determining compensation of the organization's President and other corporate officers, the board uses publically available comparability data in helping them determine an appropriate salary level. Data used includes compensation paid to individuals serving in similar positions, in similar industries, within the same geographical region. An industry average is determined and a compensation figure below this amount is selected. Compensation decisions are voted on by all members of the board, the majority of whom are independent. Decisions and deliberation are contemporaneously documented in the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors. Compensation packages are reviewed and adjusted periodically to account for inflation, economic conditions, and overall performance.
